ANNUAL HAS NOVEL THEME

"Extra! Extra! Read all about it! The 1946 Comet is new and different."

Thus the staff announce that they are presenting this year's annual in the popular style of a readable, up-to-date newspaper.

Comet Observes 25th Anniversary

This is B. H. S.'s twenty-fifth COMET!

Upon the suggestion of a former principal of Bellevue High, R. D. Metzger, the class of 1919 decided to organize a group to edit a yearbook. Late in their junior year, the staff was nominated by the teachers and approved by the student body.

This first B. H. S. annual staff included the following: editor-in-chief, Melvin R. Bergman, now a Toledo attorney; assistant editor,

In keeping with this theme, the 1946 Comet has many innovations: newspaper spreads, an unusual roto section, and art work utilizing newsprint.

Formal pictures of the seniors have been moved to a prominent place near the front of the book, and other features may turn up in new and unexpected places.

Follow the headlines as the news of the past year, hot off the wires of B. H. S., is here recorded.

Dedicates Comet to Swigart, Glasgo

Just as newspaper editors keep their office forces running smoothly and guide the struggling young cub reporters, so do the superintendent and principal direct the life of a school.

TO SUPERINTENDENT F. D. SWIGART and TO PRINCIPAL E. S. GLASGO the class of 1946 DEDICATES THIS COMET, in grateful appreciation of their many hours of "editing and copyreading."

Approachable to both pupils and faculty, progressive, alert, firm, and fair, Bellevue High School's two administrators reveal their leadership in a smoothly-running program, happy student body, and a well-chosen, tactfully-guided faculty.

College English Head Praises Bellevue Annuals

A compliment to the Comet comes from Dr. Rea McCain, head of the English Department at Bowling Green State University. She writes:

"The best of good wishes to the Comet of 1946. And that means—may it stand proudly beside the Comets of the past, their successor and their equal.

"I made the acquaintance with the Bellevue annual through Ruth Barkow. She brought the issues of 1938 and '39 to class, placing them in a pile of twenty or thirty others for us to study. We turned these over rapidly, laying the more interesting to one side. There were only two, both Bellevue Comets. Rather hard on the other students who saw their productions overshadowed. But they all agreed that the Comets were better than the annuals which they had helped to prepare.

"Why? Well, in the first place a consistent plan was developed. Every part had its place and its fair proportion. Then, all the details were carefully worked out. Each caption was interesting in itself, and significant as a part of the whole.

"As we examined these books, we did not know of the awards the Comet had received; but when we heard how it had been singled out for national recognition, we agreed that Bellevue had deserved all it received.

"Again, Good Luck to the Comet of 1946.

Cordially yours,
Rea McCain"

The enlarged group met with the adviser, Miss Elizabeth Reitz, to decide on a name for their publication. No suggestion met with approval, until Eleanor Stranahan, who is now Mrs. Robert Donahoo of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, presented the name THE COMET, "With a new tale every year."

The idea was not original at Bellevue, but was borrowed from Bluffton, Indiana, High School where it had just been adopted.

The staff, pleased with the name, set to work to launch the first edition. Financed by advertisements, the book contained pictures, articles, and humor in its eighty-two pages. With the exception of the three years in which publication was suspended, THE COMET has continued to present to the students their school life, but "With a new tale every year."

Administrators Look to Future

F. D. Swigart, Superintendent

"During my four years of service in Bellevue, I have tried to develop a friendly relationship between students and faculty," explains Superintendent F. D. Swigart. "I am happy that in Bellevue this relationship does exist and that the student feels that his teachers are his helpers and friends."

With the increased enrollment following the war, Mr. Swigart foresees new buildings, equipment, and techniques. He explains that the proposed improvement combined with the fine school spirit of Bellevue would make B.H.S. an even more outstanding high school.

The future is indeed bright under Superintendent Swigart's leadership.

E. S. Glasgo, Principal

"I think there is a definite need for a fifth and sixth year of high-school education," says Principal E. S. Glasgo. He explains that as a result of the war many high schools will offer "junior college" work. "When the supply catches up with the demand for workers, people will want the boys and girls in school, not competing with labor for hard-to-find employment," he continues. As a start, this year five night-school courses have been conducted for returning veterans and other adults.

This forward-looking, progressive attitude is typical of Mr. Glasgo, now completing his second year as head of Bellevue High School.

VETERANS JOIN CLASS OF '46

ALL SERVED IN NAVY

Seven World War II veterans returned to B.H.S. to complete their interrupted school work in time to graduate with the class of 1946. True to Bellevue's tradition as a Navy town, all seven are ex-navy men.

Although their return came in the second semester, too late for the inclusion of formal pictures in the annual, the Comet is proud to present this informal picture of the graduating servicemen.

Carl Artino was the first veteran to return to B.H.S. for graduation in '46. Carl enlisted in the Navy in 1942. He was engaged in eleven major battles in the South Pacific theater during a period of twenty-six months and was off the coast of Japan for sixty-eight days before the signing of the surrender terms.

Lyman Brown and Jack Campbell left school in 1942 and went through training together. Lyman was stationed on the aircraft carrier, Yorktown, for two years, and Jack was sent to Guam for fourteen months. Both boys were fire-control men, third class.

Roy Paul also left high school in 1942. He was stationed aboard ship in the South Pacific as a pharmacist mate for four years.

Joe Sly enlisted during his junior year in 1943. After boot training, he was sent to the South Pacific, and was stationed on the U.S.S. Hornet as a seaman, first class, for two years.

Steve Valko was vice-president of the Student Council at the time of his enlistment in 1943. He attended diesel and submarine schools in Chicago before being sent to the South Pacific on an L.S.T. He was stationed there eighteen months as a motor machinist mate, third class.

An eighth veteran, Jimmie Mills, receives his diploma with the class of '46. He, however completed his credits for graduation by courses in the Navy and did not return for high school courses.

Army Air Force veteran Arthur Baca transferred to B.H.S. for the end of his senior year.

A Senior Peers Into the Past

Remember the young and scared freshmen of '42? Now look at them—dignified seniors who are ready for commencement. Theirs is an interesting success story. Here is how one senior tells it:

FRESHMEN, RAH, FRESHMEN, RAH - - -

High school at last and we were so-o-o- thrilled to be yelling our cheer from seats on the first floor instead of on the shelf. There weren't any class officer elections that first year, but on every one of our faces was a proud expression as we elected student council representatives. Those we selected had a hand in making the Student Council constitution.

RAH, RAH, SOPHOMORES!!

We were worldly-wise sophomores and proud of it—proud, too, because our party was a bang-up affair, and everyone had such a good time square dancing. Lowly sophs that we were, still honors came our way. Three sophomores were chosen to be on the Comet staff, an honor that rarely comes to underclassmen.

J-J, -J-U-N - - -I-I, -I-O-R - - -

Juniors already! But tempus fidgets, so - - - we elected our first set of class officers. Joe Disandis was president; Eliabeth Arnholt, vice-president; Jackie Young, secretary; and Norm Eger, treasurer. Three of the four were from Miss Bates' room! Selecting class rings was a thrill, even though we didn't get to wear them until spring. Our own Vince Schlicht was a member of the first five on the B.H.S. state championship team!

- - - S - E - N - - - I - O - R - - -
SENIORS!

Big time operators, at last. We were the envy of the underclassmen as we took those middle-aisle, down-front assembly seats. The class of '46 was the first to use the nominating committee method of electing class officers. It works well, we think. Joe was elected president again; Tubby Lepley, vice-president; Elizabeth Arnholt, secretary; and Dale Campbell, treasurer. Choosing class colors, motto, flower, invitations and cards, all were other senior duties in which we took pride. Still we were nostalgic as were being fitted for commencement robes.

Believe it or not, we were growing up!

'46 Is War Class

On Pearl Harbor Day the class of 1946 were only eighth graders. Too young to realize that members of their own class would be going to war before peace could come, they wondered at the anxiety shown by parents and teachers.

However, school soon became a jumble of textbooks, newspaper headlines, and newscasts. They anxiously watched Bataan and Corregidor fall. They listened as radio broadcasts told of the invasion of Europe, of naval victories in the Pacific, of the jet-propelled plane, the jeep, and the atomic bomb.

Then after three long years, they observed a solemn V-E Day program. Finally came V-J Day, just in time for the class of '46 to have a peace-time senior year.

Classmates Enlist

In the meantime, the war had affected their class membership. When they were juniors, Joe Artino, Anthony Brugnone, Irvin Moyer, Maurice Waters, Robert Pine, Gene Gerber, and Norm Eger had entered the armed forces. Ken Linder enlisted early in his senior year.

From the faculty, Principal Edward Masonbrink, Samuel Cooper, and Robert McCoy had gone off to the Navy.

During their senior year, veterans began to return. Carl Artino, Lyman Brown, Jack Campbell, Charles Keller, Roy Paul, Steve Valko, and Joe Sly joined the class. Mr. Cooper took up his old position. Veterans George Nelson, Dean Fisher, and Arch Krumm came to B.H.S. as new members of the faculty.

Life began to return to normal. The removal of gas rationing made it possible for the class of 1946 to follow the Redmen to out-of-town games. Meat is again served at class parties. Track is restored to the athletic schedule. And some of the more lucky girls even have nylon hose!

Just Horse Sense

Changing horses in mid-stream has no worries for the class of '46. Although one superintendent, F. D. Swigart, stayed with them for their entire high-school course, they have had three principals in four years:

Edward Masonbrink—1st semester, 1942-43.

George Rilling—2nd semester 1942-'43 and 1943-'44.

E. S. Glasgo—1944-'45 and 1945-'46.

No wonder the class of '46 didn't "horse around."

Class Song Has Original Words

Words: Luetta Andrews

Here we will say, "So Long," friends,
And give our parting words,
To enter into this great world
And do all we can.
Some now will serve our mighty nation,
And some will enter other schools.
Yes, all will have a part in making
A better world in which to live.
We know that we'll always do our duties,
Ones that were taught to us while we were in school.

Music: "I'm Always Chasin' Rainbows."

Now we will say, "Good-bye," pals,
As we leave this, our school,
Where we have gained our knowledge, true,
Which we'll use to serve.
This one will be our only motto!
We learn and then "Go forth to Serve,"
Blue and white are what we will honor.
The rose we'll always wish to bloom.
Yes, we will remember all our classmates.
Our class of forty-six will always be true.

Members of the boards of education of Lyme, Groton, and Sherrington ships, Rev. N. J. Trauener of Groton, Don D. Bamfield, principal of the Lyme school, W. E. Superintendent Wadsworth presided and the group discussed the school problem in the county. Resolutions were taken on the subject of the school in order that the state might be able to work over the problem.

Commando Party Is Junior Frolic

After being sworn into the army of B.H.S. on December 12, the Juniors spent their class party doing army stunts and drills. After a strenuous commando course, the armies maneuvered through several mass games.

Later under command of General Hakes, the troops invaded the mess hall where Mess Sergeant Knauss gave them their rations.

After eating, the recruits were discharged from active service.

General Hakes and Sergeant Knauss were assisted by the B.H.S. Chiefs of Staff Bates, Kohr, and Stark.

Junior High Basketeers Win 6 Games

Clem Koselke was elected honorary Junior High basketball captain when members of the Junior High team were entertained at a post-season banquet at the home of Coach Sam Cooper on March 15. The team, which also included boys from St. Mary's Junior High, won six of the ten games it played.

Seven players received awards: Captain Koselke, Ardyn Long, Richard Hickman, Jack Drexel, Donald Adams, Wesley Green, and Terry Ruppert.

The Junior High players were divided into two squads who participated in the Y.M.C.A. league.

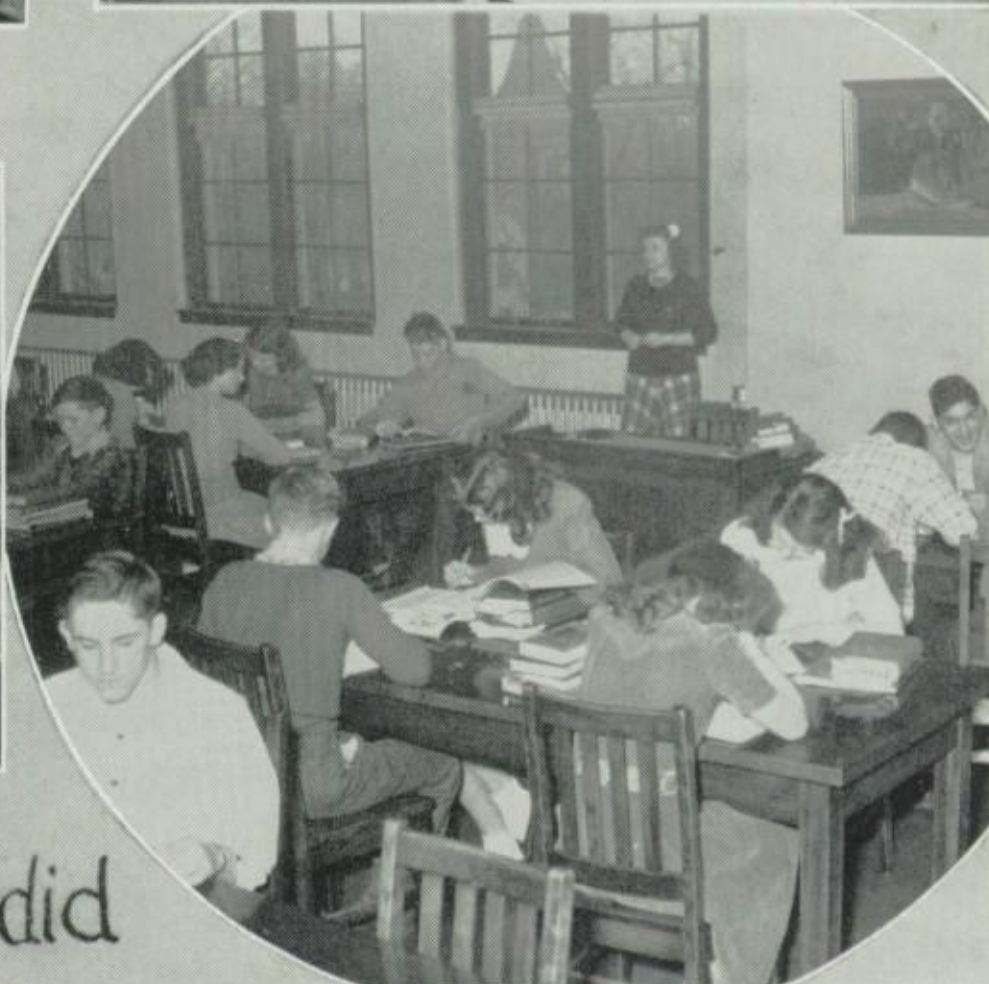

Built in 1900, the Junior High School houses the seventh and eighth grades, and the kindergarten.

Surrounded by banging typewriters, flashbulb cameras, coke bottles, and snapshots, the staff is busily preparing the 1946 COMET. With an early deadline facing them, the editors worked early and late adjusting articles and revising the dummy.

Comet Staff Strives for May Book Delivery

Comet editors, Young and Arnholt, and their staff have burned the midnight oil through the spring months to promise the May delivery of the 1946 Comet. During the war years, it seemed impossible to get the Comets off the press until the summer months, but with world-wide peace, the brightly covered red Comets are again appearing in B.H. S. corridors during school hours.

In celebrating their twenty-fifth anniversary, the Comet Staff has made every effort to publish an annual which will live up to the ideals and characteristics that have been established by other staffs in the past twenty-five years.

Dial Rotating Staff Mirrors B. H. S. Daily High Life

Not many newspapers have 100% circulation among their potential readers. The DIAL, BHS newspaper, makes this boast, as a result of Bellevue's home room financing plan.

Another distinctive feature of the Dial is its rotating system of editors whereby most of the advanced members of the staff take their turn at the fun—and the trials—of producing a newspaper.

"We are glad the Dial could increase to six pages the second semester," says Miss Adeline Wright. "The paper is beginning to return to its pre-war status. We look forward to the time when it can again be published every two weeks."

Why does B.H.S. have high scholarship? Why does everyone work hard for A's and B's? This question is answered every six weeks as the president of the Student Council presents the much coveted scholarship plaque to the homeroom whose average is the highest. Competition is keen and rivalries flourish. (See page 32.)

A student handbook that will be ready for distribution when school opens next fall is another Council project. In this work they are assisted by Mr. Samuel Cooper.

This active student-governing body also supervises the elections of class officers and cheerleaders.

During its weekly meetings the Council discusses the problems of the students. (See page 29.)

Issuing over 11,000 books this year, Miss Anderson and her twenty-six student assistants helped students of B. H. S. to meet "dead-lines in their school curriculum. Operating on a daily eight-period schedule, this busy place is the scene of research, pleasure reading, and library instruction for the various English classes. (See page 31.)

GIRL RESERVES

Show Busy Year

The Girl Reserve Cabinet

On to Ruffing's woods! Singing and laughing, the Girl Reserves started their busy schedule off with a hike on October 4. After games, group singing, and a wiener roast, came a discussion, "What the Girl Reserves Means to Me."

G. R.

In an impressive candlelight service on November 1, fifty-four girls were initiated into the Girl Reserves.

G. R.

The G. R. Sweater Swing scored a big success on November 16. Over 125 people enjoyed dancing to the music of Bob Williams' band.

G. R.

On November 17, fifteen girls attended the G. R. fall conference at Greensprings, and gained help in planning programs, service work and social activity.

G. R.

"Christmas in Other Lands" was presented for the Women's Council at the annual G. R. Christmas party, December 7.

G. R.

Heading the list of social activities for the G. R.'s was the Christmas Formal on December 19. Over seventy couples danced to the smooth music of Ernie Duffield's orchestra.

G. R.

The G. R.'s sent Dials to B. H. S. boys in service, who would have been in school this year. They also teamed up with the Hi-Y in sponsoring the clothing drive. They collected 575 pounds of clothing for the needy people of the world.

G. R.

In one of the best joint Hi-Y, Girl Reserve meetings for many years, a question box was used. Ken Horton and Jackie Young, presidents, were delighted with the results.

G. R.

"That Man Truman", one of the newest "best sellers", was reviewed by Miss Elsa Anderson at the meeting on January 7. On February 19 Mr. Sam Cooper told many interesting war experiences of his life in the Navy.

G. R.

The club gave ten dollars to the Bellevue Hospital Fund and two dollars to the Red Cross.

G. R.

Just before Easter, a spring style show was presented for the Girl Reserves and their friends. Light refreshments were served.

G. R.

Corsages, spring flowers, loaded tables, speeches of tribute, and music. It's the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet, May 8.

G. R.

Miss Mary Cooper, Miss Erma Buffington, and Miss Janice Arnholt are advisers. "The Girl Reserves certainly appreciate all the many hours the advisers have spent helping us plan a successful year," says Jackie Young.

Joint Hi-Y Clubs

Wind-up Successful Year

The Hi-Y year reached a climax on May 13 when the club entertained their mothers at the annual Mother-Son Banquet. An innovation was the opening of the banquet to all high-school boys and their mothers.

Being hosts to the district Hi-Y meeting in April in the Bellevue High auditorium was another high-light of the year for the Bellevue Hi-Y clubs. The district chairman, Kenneth Horton was in charge of the arrangements.

Herbert E. Wolfe completed his ninth year as faculty adviser for the Bellevue Hi-Y Clubs in the 1945-46 school year. It was Walter Stapf's fourth year as citizen adviser and Herbert W. Lorenz's third year as Y.M.C.A. adviser. Dr. H. K. Shumaker is the honorary adviser.

Edward Moyer represented the senior club at the HiY Congress in Columbus on January 19 and 20; and James Smith attended for the junior club. Mr. Wolfe accompanied the two boys.

F. H. A. Cabinet Meets

Demonstrations of colorful flower arrangements by Ernest Ferguson, hair styling by Kay Christman, and photography techniques by Mr. Fisher and Mr. Glasgo are typical of the programs of the F.H.A. club. "Our meetings are both entertaining and instructive," says Joyce Korndorfer, senior.

The picture below shows a large group of students taking home economics of which many are members of the Bellevue Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America.

The F.H.A. girls know how to throw a party, too. At their annual Christmas party, the group spent the evening around the brightly decorated Christmas tree. (See page 27.)

On Valentine's Day came another gala affair when the girls entertained in the gym gaily decorated with hearts and cupids. The girls were delighted with humorous skits put on by several of the male guests.

As could be expected in an F.H.A. club, refreshments "were delicious."

"Big Hearted Herbert"

Is Junior Play Hit

The Big Night

Bellevue, Nov. 16, 1945 . . . "Big Hearted Herbert", a Rebecca Jones production, scored a smash hit here last night, as the juniors presented their annual class play in Central High auditorium.

When Big-Hearted Herbert insisted on bringing up his family with old-fashioned methods, complications arose. Then when his family turned the tables, the fun rose to a hilarious climax, until Father had a change of heart and truly lived up to his name.

Instrumental Music Is Popular At B.H.S.

Orchestra Grows

Four orchestras in four different schools—no wonder Carl O. Lenz, director of the B.H.S. orchestra, is busy! Yet in his one day at Bellevue, he squeezes in lessons and rehearsals which climax in an excellent concert at the Choral-Orchestra Festival and the Music Festival, and in selections for plays and programs throughout the year.

The orchestra this year, somewhat larger than that of last year, numbers thirty-six student musicians.

"I enjoy working with the Bellevue orchestra," comments Mr. Lenz. "But," he adds, "I hope the string section will be even larger next year."

Bandmaster Sets Aims

"About 90% work, 7% ability, and 3% luck; that's our band philosophy," declared Mr. Nathan Rosenthal, newcomer to the B.H.S. faculty, and director not only of the large school band but also of the Junior High and Pike School bands. (See page 26.)

Under his baton, the Marching Band has learned to "strut its stuff" before admiring crowds at football games, and has resumed the practice of appearing at out-of-town games.

The Concert Band scored a success in its annual concert which featured symphonic music and soloists.

The Pep Band added the extra thrill and enthusiasm at basketball games.

Vocal Groups Star In Spring Music Festivals

Senior Ensemble

In close harmony, the voices of the B.H.S. choruses joined on March 29 to present the colorful Spring festival. A dance for participants followed the concert.

The three choral groups also sang at the inter-school festival held at Galion on April 5, and presented numbers in several assemblies.

Other vocal groups at B.H.S. are the Senior Ensemble and Sophomore Sextet. Instead of the traditional senior sextet, nine senior girls have organized an ensemble with Rose Jane Monarchi, Ellen Woodward, and Charleen Radkey singing first soprano; Rosemary Joyce, Lois Glasgo, and Elizabeth Arnholt, second soprano; and Nancy Frost, Marjorie Horn, and Lorene Scheid, alto. Marilyn King is the accompanist.

Six sophomores form their class sextet. Marilyn King and Carolyn Arnholt are first sopranos; Jackie Richards and Mary Jane Matherly, second sopranos; Glee Swigart and Jeanette Tibboles, altos; Dorothy Sprankel accompanies them.

Mr. Arch Krumm, who came to BHS at the beginning of the second semester, directs all vocal music.

Bellevue, December 19, 1945—"The Supreme Gift" received the supreme sign of recognition—the B.H.S. stamp of approval—here yesterday as it was presented for the annual Christmas program. Scholarship Tests Arouse Keen Interests

Interest in scholarship took a new high at B.H.S. this year when students took four state and three nation-wide scholarship tests.

In the state General Scholarship Tests for Seniors, taken by thirty-three top-ranking seniors, nine received certificates for placing high in the Bellevue area: Vesta Wagner, Lyle Moyer, Elizabeth Anholt, Robert Collins, Jacqueline Young, Ellen Woodward, Dale Campbell, Sylvester Lepley, and Lois Glasgo. Special recognition came to Vesta Wagner who ranked in the upper five percent of the state.

Forty-two Bellevue high-school students represented B.H.S. in the District Scholarship contest at Heidelberg University on May 4. They won this opportunity as the result of two preliminary state tests. The team included the following:

English IX: Bill Dunn*, Joanne Radkey*, Newton Baker*; English X: Jackie Richards*, Dorothy Sprankel*, Mary Hartman; English XI: Jack Heter*, Victor George*, Maryellen Koch*; English XII: Lois Glasgo*, Vesta Wagner*, Gene Alexander.

Latin I: Catherine Wyant*, Marilyn Downs, Bill Dunn; Latin II: Carolyn Arnholt*, Frances Kieser.

Spanish I: Jean Erf*, Maryellen Koch; Spanish II: Elizabeth Arnholt*, Lorene Scheid, Ellen Woodward.

Chemistry: Jack Heter*, Frank LaSalle; Physics: Ralph Kieser*, Jackie Young, Don McClintock; Biology: Peter Dietzel*, Bob Taylor*, Clarice Hire; General Science: Charles Schott*, Newton Baker, Richard Geiger; Pre-flight: Dale Campbell*, Ralph Kieser, Lyle Moyer.

Algebra I: Charles Schott*, Joanne Cook*, Tom Beard; Advance Algebra: Robert Abell*; Plane Geometry: William Drewes*, Arthur Eberly; Bookkeeping: Vesta Wagner*, Norma Pocock.

Those whose names are starred received certificates for placing high in the Pre-District tests.

Results of the District tests were

Room 210 Takes It Fifth

The scholarship race became a strenuous scramble this year as 109, a room filled with intellectual juniors, claimed the honors for four grade periods, hitting a high of 3.0, a B average. The fifth grade period, 210's bald eagles came up from third place, passed Miss Buffington's seniors who had held second place most of the year, and took the coveted plaque.

Five senior girls took the D.A.R. Good Citizenship test: Vesta Wagner, Elizabeth Arnholt, Jacqueline Young, Charleen Radkey, and Ellen Woodward.

Five seniors also struggled through the Pepsi Cola test: Alice Abel, Ken Horton, Charleen Radkey, Ed Moyer, and Jacqueline Young.

Elizabeth Arnholt and Jacqueline Young took the National Honor Society test.

Candid Camera Catches Varied Curriculum

Unusual photographs, many of which were taken without the subject's knowledge, are proudly presented in this COMET. For example, the Comet Roto alone contains forty-nine shots, many of which were made by that agile camera enthusiast, Dean Fisher, whose little gun was constantly clicking at unexpected moments.

To prove that the B.H.S. curriculum is well balanced, the editors call your attention to the following:

Art classes, pages 29 and 31; biology, p.22, 27, 28; chemistry, p. 21; industrial arts, p. 26, 27, 29, 31; speech class, p.28; typing and office practice, p.29, 30; mechanical drawing, p.31; vocal and instrumental music, p. 26; pre-flight, p.30; the library, p.31; home economics, p.27, 30.

Interesting pictures of pupils studying are found on pages 26, 28, 29; while shots made outside the building are to be seen on pages 1, 26, 27, 30, 31.

Snappy Salesmen Sell Magazines

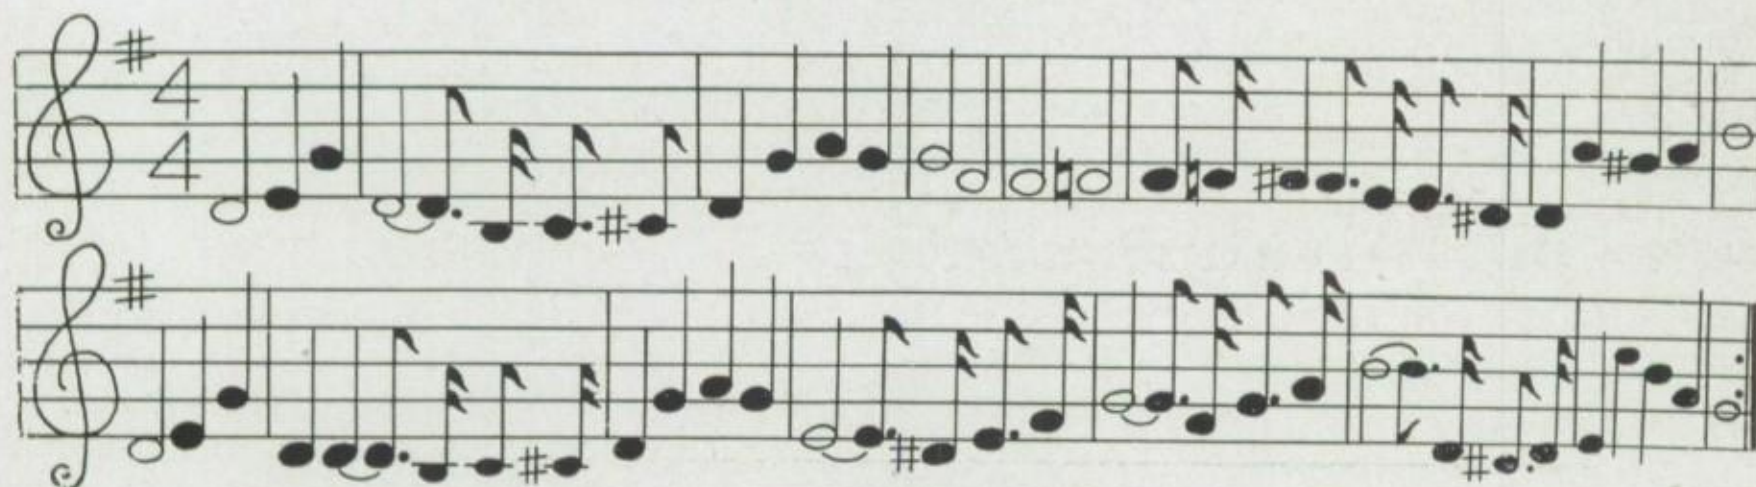

When B.H.S. students scamper for copies of "How to Win Friends and Influence People," it is evident that the annual magazine sale campaign is underway.

Top salesmen who took the grand prizes this year are Bob Kaiser, Josephine Sberna, Tom Beard, and Myron Schuster.

In the room contest, the Junior High students proved their worth as salesmen. Miss Batzel's group in stiff competition took undisputed first place with sales of $206.80. Their closest rival was Miss Yingling's room. First place in the senior high school was captured by Miss Schachtele's freshmen, who collected $116, spurred on by the keen rivalry given them by Miss Arnholt's room.

Leading senior room was 117; leading junior, 109; leading sophomore, 204.

STAND UP AND CHEER

Stand up and cheer, cheer loud and long for dear old Bellevue,
For today we raise the red and white above the rest.

Our boys are fighting, and they are bound to win the fray.
We've got the team! We've got the steam!
For this is dear old Bellevue's day!

Winning their first game of the season and also the first Northern Ohio league contest last Friday night, the Bellevue Redmen swamped the Bucyrus quintet, 53-36.

The locals took a commanding 11-1 lead in the first frame, and advanced to 23-11 at halftime. The Redmen made it 43-21 going into the final stanza, but Bucyrus outscored them to bring the final score to 53-36.

In a spectacular game, Tiffin's Ambian bowed out the lightning men five by a 31 to 30 count in a large crowd, December 7, 1961.

Although the Redmen were short end of 10-4 score at the quarter they worked the tally to 13-13 of Tiffin at halftime.

NINE SENIORS GET LETTERS

At the annual football banquet held November 28, the curtain was rung down on another successful year of gridiron warfare.

Completing their football careers at B.H.S. were twelve seniors and a student manager. The nine lettermen are as follows:

JIM BRANCO, right guard. Jim played outstanding ball in the front line of the squad. He was always in there fighting for the best interests of the team.

DALE CAMPBELL, left halfback. Dale's speed and fighting spirit sparked the backfield in their scoring attacks.

JOE DISANDIS, end. Joe was injured in the Tiffin contest but bounced back to give plenty of headaches to the opposing elevens.

KEN HORTON, right tackle. Ken opened the holes in the line for the backfield to drive through. His blocking and tackling were important factors.

RALPH KIESER, second-team halfback. Ralph was used for defensive action, and for offense in the Bucyrus and Port Clinton games.

BILL KISTLER, left tackle. Bill was the big gun in the forward wall. He was in on most of the tackles and his blocking accounted for much yardage by the backfield. Bill was elected honorary captain. He was also chosen on the all-Northern Ohio League first team.

VINCE SCHLICHT, end. Vince did the punting and running on end around plays as well as snatching passes. He was also a fine tackler.

HAL SHELLEY, right halfback. Hal was the captain for the first half of the year. He was a hard driver who gained much yardage and one of the top scorers of the team.

BILL STOLDT, guard and tackle. Bill served as a utility man for both positions, and offered good insurance for the forward wall.

DICK BELL, senior manager. Dick held an important but thankless job for the squad. He was always on hand when duty called.

Other seniors completing their high school grid careers were Lyle Moyer, Bob Canfield, and Tom Hagerman.

The underclassmen who received their letters were as follows: Steve Merk, fullback; Frank LaSalle, center; Jim Ball, quarterback; Dean Todd, end; and Jack Gabel, guard. Scott Abel earned his numerals and Chuck Ferres took a major manager's letter.

Redmen Rally to Tie St. Joe, 19-19

SHELLEY'S THREE TALLIES LEAD BELLEVUE IN OPENER

BELLEVUE, Sept. 14 — Displaying a beautiful rally in the last two minutes of play, the Bellevue Redmen pushed over two touchdowns to tie the Fremont St. Joe Gridders, 19-19, in the opening contest of the season tonight at Harmon Field.

Hal Shelley broke through the Saint's defense to score all three Bellevue touchdowns, and Tom Hagerman took a pass for the extra point.

Redmen Upset Tiffin Columbian, 19-14

BELLEVUE, Sept. 21 — The Bellevue Redmen sparked in all departments here tonight as they whipped a powerful and determined Tiffin Columbian eleven for their first victory, 19-14.

Strobelmen Take First League Victory

BUCYRUS, Sept. 28 — Scoring twice in the opening period and once in the third and fourth quarters, the Bellevue Redmen gained their first league victory here tonight over the Bucyrus gridmen, 26-12.

Redmen Deadlock With Norwalk, 12-12

BELLEVUE, Oct. 5 — Capitalizing on a 61-yard touchdown march late in the fourth stanza, the Redmen tied a hard fighting Norwalk eleven, 12-12, before an overflow crowd that jammed into Harmon field tonight.

Upper Sandusky Trounces Bellevue

UPPER SANDUSKY, Oct. 12 — A power-laden Upper Sandusky football squad swamped the Bellevue Redmen here tonight before a capacity crowd, 53-6. The Redmen scored first, early in the opening frame on a pass from Vince Schlicht to Dale Campbell, but were stopped cold the remainder of the contest.

The count was tied at the end of the first period, but the Jackets' 26-point spree in the second quarter submerged the Red and White.

COACH HARRY STROBEL gives last minute briefing before the players leave the dressing room for warm-ups. Enthusiastic fans join with the cheerleaders as they urge the Redmen eleven on to victory!

FROM WORK TO PLEASURE! Push-ups and charges at the blocking machine help prepare the gridgers for the next game. The squad receives its award at the annual football banquet, and individual letters are handed out by Coach Strobel, while Ohio State football coach, Paul Bixler, speaker at the banquet, looks on.

Redmen Retaliate to Trim Shelby

BELLEVUE, Oct. 19 — Scoring two touchdowns in the fourth quarter, the hard-fighting Bellevue Redmen showed rejuvenation after their preceding trouncing by Upper Sandusky, and trimmed the Shelby gridmen, 20-6, here tonight.

The local' score in the second quarter was tallied by Hal Shelley, and Merk and Campbell scored the other two. The extra points were by Steve Merk and Dean Todd.

Locals Down Sandusky St. Marys

SANDUSKY, Oct. 25 — Touchdowns in the first quarter and third stanza provided the Redmen scoring punch that downed St. Mary's eleven here tonight, 18-13.

Jim Ball plunged over for the first score in the opening period. Steve Merk tallied the second counter in the third frame, and Vince Schlicht picked up a blocked punt and ran 50 yards for the final score.

Redmen Hear Paul Brown at Banquet

LETTER WINNERS ALSO HONORED AT ANNUAL FEED FOR CAGE STARS

With Paul Brown, former coach at Ohio State and new mentor of the Cleveland Browns, professional football team, speaking to a large group of Bellevue basketball fans and the varsity and reserve players, the Redmen formally ended their 1945-46 basketball season.

Letters were awarded to this year's stars, and the season was reviewed. The five seniors and two underclassmen on this year's squad are as follows:

VINCE SCHLICHT — Vince was captain of this year's quintet, and his fine ball handling labeled him as one of the Bellevue "greats." Vince was runner-up in the scoring, with 149 points.

JOE DISANDIS — Leading the list of scorers with 167 tallies, Joe was an important link in the Redmen defensive and offensive system.

LYLE MOYER — Playing his first year on the varsity, Lyle tallied 109 points, and played good defensive ball.

SYLVESTER LEPLEY — Tubby was chiefly a defensive man, but could be counted on in the pinches for scoring punch.

DALE CAMPBELL — Dale was always in there fighting and his speed was an important cog in the Redmen machine.

JIM BALL — A junior this year, Jim should be a valuable asset for next year's squad because of his accurate shooting.

DEAN TODD — With his six feet, three and one-half inches of height, Dean, a sophomore added much to the locals' five.

BOB TODD — Bob served his fourth year as manager, and his accurate and neat scorekeeping will be remembered by all.

BILL SERRAINO — Assistant-manager Bill kept the shot charts that helped rout out the defects of the team.

COACH HARRY STROBEL — In spite of the lack of a team like that of the preceding year, Coach Strobel sent a determined and well-coached five on the floor every week.

Bellevue Wins Second Place In League Play

In the new Northern Ohio League, which had its first full season of basketball this year, the Bellevue Redmen proved that they were still in the running when a trophy was at stake.

The Strobelmen won six of the seven league contests to gain second place, while the Norwalk Maples won all seven of their games for first place. Bellevue also placed Captain Vince Schlicht on the first team of the All Northern Ohio League, and Joe Disandis was awarded a second team berth.

TEAM LEADER Graduate of Massillon High School and Miami University, Coach Harry Strobel directed the Redmen for his fourth year.

LOCALS WIN NINE OF THEIR SIXTEEN SCHEDULED GAMES

Coach Al Alvarez's Redmen Reserves completed one of their most successful seasons in recent years. The junior Redmen piled up 457 points to the 436 of their opponents for an average of about $28\frac{1}{2}$ to $27\frac{1}{4}$ per game.

The Red and White understudies won nine of their sixteen games while one of their defeats came on an overtime decision. Several more of their losses were by close margins, one of them by a single marker and the other by two points.

The team got off to a slow start by dropping their first three games. Then Bucyrus proved the first victim to the victory-hungry Redmen seconds, 39 to 21. Norwalk stopped the Redmen short in the next contest, 23 to 22, in a thriller that was undecided until the final second. The Red and White opened up to take five successive wins over Port Clinton, Sandusky, Galion, Shelby, and Fremont before the Maples from Norwalk again halted the Redmen.

The Reserves popped back to nose out Upper Sandusky, but lost to Port Clinton in an over-time battle, 29-27. The Redmen racked up two more to their ever-growing victory column, before Elyria brought their season to a close with a 35 to 33 setback for the locals.

The Alvarez-coached quintet showed good ball handling and should provide excellent varsity material for the future squads.

BELLEVUE IS ONLY THORN IN MIDDLETOWN'S RECORD

Because of the defeat handed them by the Bellevue Redmen last year, the Middletown Middies just missed gaining permanent possession of the State travelling trophy. This might have been Middletown's third straight year in the Championship spot. They won in 1944 and again in 1946 and lost only in the finals to Bellevue in 1945. In fact, that loss to Bellevue is Middletown's only defeat in seventy games.

Coach Cooper Is Back

TRACK RETURNS

And How!

After a three-year absence from the Bellevue sports scene, the spring sport of track returned in 1946 to take its place beside football and basketball.

Fifty-three candidates reported to Coaches Cooper and Alvarez, and later the squad was whittled down to forty-one.

In the first meet, an interclass contest held on April 3, the Freshmen-Juniors bowed to the Senior-Sophomore combine, 62 $\frac{1}{3}$ to 59 $\frac{2}{3}$. A new interclass record was set in the mile relay by Jim Kovacs, Jim Ball, Joe Zimmerman, and Milt Bruckner, representing the Freshmen-Juniors. The time was 4:14.2.

On April 9, the Redmen defeated Amherst 66 to 52 at Greenwood Heights Field.

Tiffin Columbian were humbled by the B.H.S. cindersmen, 98-20, on April 12.

When Bellevue met Republic on April 16, they trounced them 91 $\frac{2}{3}$ to 26 $\frac{1}{3}$. Movies were taken of this meet to aid in studying form.

As the Comet goes to press, a meet is scheduled with Norwalk, one with Clyde, a triangular meet with Monroeville and Castalia, and a league meet in Galion.

At the league meet the trackmen will be gunning for their first N.O.L. title. Five teams are entered, Bellevue, Galion, Bucyrus, Norwalk, and Upper Sandusky. Coach Cooper expects the stiffest competition to be offered by the Yellow Jackets of Upper Sandusky.

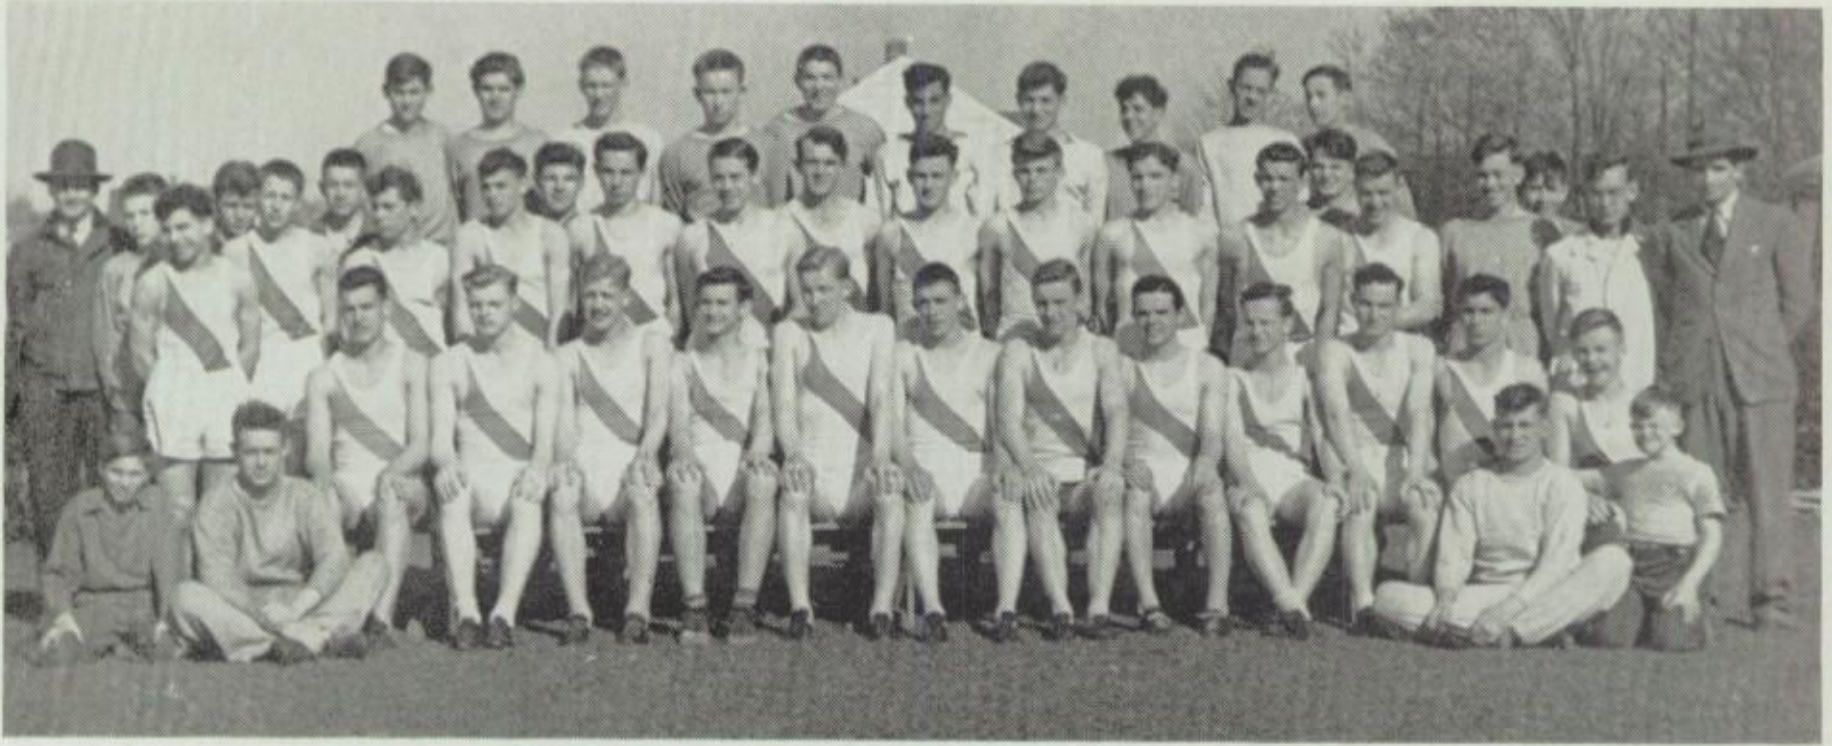

With four meets played, Milt Bruckner is undefeated in the mile and in the half-mile run. Bill Serraino has tasted victory every time in the 100-yard dash.

The half-mile relay team, composed of Bill Serraino, Dale Campbell, Don Moyer, and Gene Grote, are within one second of the school record; and before the season is over, the boys hope to break it.

Leading scorers so far in the season are Dale Campbell, Don Moyer, and Milt Bruckner.

There are nineteen possible major or minor letter winners: Dale Campbell, Bob Canfield, Ralph Kieser, Don McClintock, Ed Moyer, Bill Serraino, Hal Shelley, Melvin Shelley, Daryl Shupp, Gene Grote, Jim Ball, Steve Merk, Don Moyer, Frank LaSalle, Dick Starr, Jim Gabel, Dean Todd, Bill Brown, and Milton Bruckner.

With practically every boy in high school competing in some form of athletic event, the 1945-'46 intramural season was again a big success for participants and fans alike.

Volleyball, touch football, boxing, track and "king" basketball held the spotlights in their respective seasons.

Miss Wright's homeroom, 117, walked off with all the team contests except the basketball tourney, which was won by Miss Buffington's 108.

Pictured below are the champs of homeroom 117. On the opposite page boys' boxing and swimming classes go through their paces.

When the intramural festival was held in the B.H.S. auditorium on April 9, a large attendance showed the interest of the townsfolk in seeing the type of work done in physical education classes.

In Girls' Intramurals Juniors Shine

Championships in girls intramural contests seem to be a habit with the Juniors. Although from soccer in the fall until softball in the spring, B.H.S. girl athletics are always "on the ball," this is especially true of the Juniors. They have won tournaments in volleyball, basketball, ping pong doubles and foul shooting.

All sports activities were under the supervision of Miss Grover, physical education teacher.

During the fall days the girls could be found engaging in soccer games on the playing field behind the school, but bad weather prevented the completion of a tournament.

Volleyball was the main attraction in November. The Junior team captained by Janice Hamer, succeeded in winning first place honors among the six teams.

Members of the team are: Janice Hamer, Mary Louise Wilhelm, Rosalie Sturgeon, Marjorie Friend, Rita Baldwin, Susan Reitzel, Shirley Springer, Jean Erf, Catherine Brown, Jerry Joyce, Belma Knauss, Ruth Pittenger, Nora Starr, and Ann Wolfe.

During the basketball season, enthusiastic playing and keen competition were created in the round-robin tournament during noon hours. Again a Junior team III, captained by Janice Hamer, came through with flying colors to claim the title. Other members of the winning team include: Rosalie Sturgeon, Marjorie Friend, Eileen Claus, Susan Reitzel, Shirley Springer, Josephine Sberna, Mary K. Siesel. Four teams which hold a tie for second place are: Team II, captained by Jackie Young; Team IV, Nora Starr; Team V, Pat Fox and Dorothy Shelley; Team VII, Bonita Springer.

The four other participating teams were Lorene Scheid's Team I, Mary Ann Siesel's Team VI, Louise Papke's Team VIII, Jo Ann Radkey's Team IX.

At the close of the season, two All-Star teams were chosen. White All Stars are Nora Starr, Jackie Young, Bonita Springer, Dorothy Shelley, Susan Reitzel, Irene Brown, Lorene Scheid, Nancy Frost. Red All-Stars are Janice Hamer, Charlotte Bingel, Jean Erf, Marjorie Horn, Clarice Hire, Rita Baldwin, Ellen Woodward and Dorothy Miller. Officials include: Rose Jane Monarchi, referee; Pat Fox, umpire; Carolyn Arnholt, Joanne Zehner, scorers; Mary Jane Matherly, timer.

In the foul shooting contest, Janice Hamer won in the Jr.-Sr. division, while Suzette Lepley won in the Fr.-Soph. division.

The title of the ping pong singles elimination tournament was taken by Frances Keiser, with Susan Reitzel and Jean Erf winning the double ping pong honors.

Joanne Zehner and Dorothy Shelley captured the Badminton doubles title. Badminton singles and soft-ball tournaments completed the spring program of girls' intramural activities, but results were not known before the Comet went to press.

Membership in the Aquatics Club is won only after a girl has successfully completed a swimming examination given by the veteran Aquatians.

Highlighting the Aquatics year is a "splash party" at which club members entertain their guests with a novel luncheon-swim.
